MARKETING STRATEGY

Successful companies must employ innovative marketing strategies to remain ahead of the competition. Competitive campaigns can only be effective through active engagement of customers to a credible value proposition and a well-positioned product/service portfolio.

This 4-day experiential program provides the participants an opportunity to simulate real-time strategy formulation. Participants workout consumer profile, market positioning, resource planning, monitor and forecast demand patterns and respond to the competitive elements operating in the same market.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

Based on a state-of-the-art marketing strategy simulation and augmented with cases and discussions, this program will provide managers hands-on experience of managing a portfolio of products in real-time.

During the program, the participants learn to;

- Identify the most attractive target segment and ascertain consumer demand patterns
- Develop a superior and differentiated customer value proposition
- Work-out and execute the core elements of a marketing strategy
- Monitor competitors’ strengths and weaknesses to trade to one’s advantage
- Anticipate and preempt/react to competition’s moves to dominate the market
- Manage a portfolio of old and new products to ensure the steady and growing profit stream
- Strengthen their capacity as marketing strategist
