Changing market dynamics, globalisation and the increasing complexity in corporations is making the role of boards integral to overall sustainability of the enterprise. Boards have to deal with a multitude of new pressures, challenges and risks, necessitating them to uphold the highest standards of corporate governance and effective execution of their roles. Whether it is regulatory compliance, financial resilience, maximisation of shareholder value, risk management or leadership challenges of the top team, Directors Training Programme addresses these unique issues and helps promote sound corporate governance.

In the course of this programme you will learn the best practices of corporate boards, how to leverage your skills to effectively lead, assemble and analyse the right level of information, rise to the challenges of changing times and effectively align the interests of individuals, organisations and society.

Interacting with a diverse group of board members you will be exposed to latest in corporate governance that will help you develop an understanding of contemporary governance mechanisms and related best practices, and equip you with essential insights to increase your effectiveness as a board member.

The 4-day modular programme addresses key governance issues, such as the need to ensure due process, adequate internal controls, appropriate disclosures and transparency, proper accounting procedures, regulatory compliance as well as checks and balances. In addition, the programme will emphasise behavioural competencies needed to make board's process efficient and effective.

BENEFITS

Across modules, you will be exposed to real life cases on governance challenges and issues faced globally.

Enriched with local anecdotes of board practices and pitfalls the programme will help you:

PROGRAMME DIRECTORS

Khalid A. Mirza

Professor of Practice
M.Com, University of the Punjab

Khalid Mirza has nearly 50 years of work experience in both private and public institutions. After an initial two-year stint (1966-68), as a junior executive in the Amirali Fancy Group, a diversified business conglomerate, Mr. Mirza gained extensive investment banking experience over a period of 15 years (1968-83), both in Pakistan and United Kingdom. He then joined IFC as an investment officer in February, 1983, rising through successive promotions to eventually serve as IFC's Chief of Mission in Turkey (1994-96) and Chief of Regional Mission in Thailand (1998-2000).

As Chairman of the Securities & Exchange Commission of Pakistan (2000-2003), Mr. Mirza implemented major programmes to enhance the institutional capacity of the Commission. Later, he returned to World Bank Group to manage IBRD's financial sector/private sector programme in East Asia (2003-06). Subsequently, as Chairman of Pakistan's Monopoly Control Authority (July 2006 - October 2007), he introduced reforms to enhance effectiveness of the institution and advised the Government on its conversion into a modern competition agency, the Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP). As CCP's first Chairman (October 2007 - August 2010), he played a pivotal role in the implementation of the new competition regime and building the capacity of CCP. Since September, 2010, Mr. Mirza has been teaching in LUMS and rose to full professor as of April, 2014.
