STRATEGY EXECUTION: TURNING PLANS INTO PERFORMANCE

STRATEGY EXECUTION: TURNING PLANS INTO PERFORMANCE

Grand visions and impeccable strategies cannot lead to success without their effective execution and implementation across the length and breadth of the organisation. Real test of how great a strategy is when the rubber meets the road - when visions from the top either diffuse or clash in the middle of the organisation, when goals trickling down either unite and focus or divide and distract the performers, and when everyday actions either propel the organisation toward its chosen destiny or pushes it into the wilds of disarray. If coming up with a great strategy is challenging, translating it into fruitful actions is daunting.

This 3-day intensive programme is aimed at helping executives understand the nuts and bolts of executing the business strategy of their organisation. It is designed to help managers translate organisational strategy into concrete goals and tactics to drive superior performance in their respective domains.
