STRATEGIC PROCUREMENT MANAGEMENT

The Strategic Procurement Management programme seeks to familiarise participants with the goal of aligning procurement unit functions with organisational priorities to develop integrated purchasing strategies and operations. In addition, the programme seeks to expose challenges and decision frameworks in efficiently managing procurement process as well as interaction with internal and external stakeholders. In this way, the programme is focused at understanding the larger picture of the organisation and procurement’s role in decision making at the middle to senior management level.

During the programme, participants will be exposed to a spectrum of concepts, skills and techniques essential for alleviating the role of procurement leaders to achieve desired results.

PROGRAMME BENEFITS
The Strategic Procurement Management programme provides a unique opportunity for participants to reflect on their sourcing strategy and understand key challenges in its implementation. Over the four days, participants will gain exposure on:
