BUILDING BLOCKS OF HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

LIVE Online Programme
Building Blocks of Human Resource Management is a rigorous 4-day programme during which HR professionals develop an understanding of the fundamental and critical building blocks of a performance-driven human resource management system.

This programme enhances your knowledge of the HR function and related processes while building practical and demonstrable skills required to manage HR both at the departmental and organisational level. You get a chance to connect the role of HR processes with performance, results and value creation for the organisational success. The programme exposes you to the core tools and techniques which effectively contributes to generating value in you as an HR professional. Working in small groups on HR Project and HR simulation provides hands-on experience to develop performance-driven HR systems and implement best HR practices.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND
The programme is designed for HR Business Partners, Human Resource executives, people who are looking to move into HR function, Line Managers and Unit Heads who manage their own HR function.

PROGRAMME BENEFITS
The programme focuses on conceptual and practical aspects of the HR function. Through a blended approach using case studies, experiential learning simulations, and HR projects, you will get insights on;

- Creating value through main HR functions such as job analysis, recruitment and selection, performance management etc.
- Developing skills and competencies required to lead an effective HR function with an expanded role in the organisation
- Managing the linkages and consistencies between different HR functions
- Enhancing HR decision-making skills in different situations and contexts and linking them to organisational performance
- Developing capabilities to implement effective HR systems
- Modern trends and issues in managing HR

LIVE VIRTUAL LEARNING FOR EXECUTIVES
The 4-day experiential programme is intelligently adapted to live virtual format imparting a brilliant mix of theoretical concepts, insights from practice, constructive tools and techniques in a highly interactive and engaged e-learning environment.

The participants get direct access to LUMS faculty and engage with peers through interactive class discussions, simulations and group project work that helps reinforce learning and networking among the group.
