EFFECTIVE REWARD MANAGEMENT

February 11 - 13, 2025

Suleman Dawood
School of Business

Effective Reward Management (ERM)

Enroll in this executive education programme for an enriching learning experience where you gain insights into how the reward and compensation systems can be designed, evolved and aligned to enable and reinforce contemporary organisational strategies and performance. During this 3-day programme, you will explore nuanced reward management principles and equip yourself to strategically align the organisation's financial and non-financial compensation structures with critical business objectives.

By engaging in dynamic and interactive sessions, you will be better equipped to examine and implement the compensation models and reward system design procedures, leading you to maximise motivation and drive unparalleled performance by more confidently addressing the challenges managers face in the 21st century.

PROGRAMME BENEFITS

During the programme, you will;

- Explore the foundational philosophy of reward management.
- Understand the key components of a successful reward system.
- Acquire insights into constructing effective variable pay systems.
- Understand the impact of reward management on employee motivation and performance.
- Engage with contemporary issues and best practices in reward and compensation management.

Programme Date:	February 11 - 13, 2025
