LAW FOR BUSINESS EXECUTIVES

February 20 - 22, 2025

Suleman Dawood
School of Business

Understanding how different laws shape business practices and their associated risks is crucial for turning challenges into opportunities within a business. Tailored for business executives, this programme focuses on enhancing decision-making skills by integrating legal principles into business strategies. Through a blend of interactive modules, case studies, and expert-led sessions, the programme covers compliance-driven laws, such as labour and environmental regulations, alongside areas like intellectual property and banking law that can be leveraged for competitive advantage.

Participants will learn how to anticipate and manage legal disputes, shape business strategies through sound governance, and navigate competition laws to stay ahead in the market. By the end of the programme, executives will have the legal acumen to anticipate challenges, make informed decisions, and drive their organisations towards sustained growth and success.

BENEFITS

The 3-day intensive programme will enable participants to:

- Gain foundational knowledge of the Pakistani legal system, its structure, and key regulatory frameworks.
- Strengthen decision-making by applying legal principles to optimise business operations, seize opportunities, and gain a competitive edge.
- Reduce legal risks by understanding compliance frameworks that are vital for business success.
- Improve contract negotiation and management, ensuring agreements work in favour of the company.
- Incorporate corporate social responsibility (CSR) and environmental law into business practices, promoting ethical and sustainable operations.
- Handle business disputes smoothly, using litigation or alternative dispute resolution mechanisms.
- Gain practical skills through case studies and interactive sessions.
- Broaden professional network by connecting with industry experts and peers, exchanging ideas, and learning from real-world experiences.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This programme is designed for:

- High-level business executives who manage successful enterprises
- Members of the board of directors
- Entrepreneurs engaged in new or established ventures
- Executives who liaise with legal counsel
- In-house legal counsel
