SPIRITUAL AND ETHICAL REJUVENATION FOR INDIVIDUAL AND ORGANISATIONAL GROWTH

As leadership challenges become increasingly complex and individual and organizational values are more frequently tested, senior leaders must strike a balance between performance and ethical judgment, as well as values-driven decision-making. While many leadership programmes focus on strategy and execution, few provide leaders with the space to critically reflect on ethical foundations rooted in Islamic and other normative and ethical philosophies and apply them to contemporary organisational challenges. This programme addresses that gap by offering a reflective yet practical approach to leadership, one that integrates spiritual insight, ethical responsibility, and organisational effectiveness.

The programme will enable senior leaders to explore and reflect on spiritual and moral principles, refine and align their personal purpose with organisational goals, and develop frameworks for ethical decision-making and holistic growth, incorporating and aligning individual and organisational values and behaviours.

CURRICULUM

After the completion of the programme, the participants will have a deeper connection with:

- The Quest for Purpose: Aligning personal life mission with business vision.
- Self-Reflection & Leadership Accountability: Spiritual auditing and integrity.
- Ethical Foundations: Islamic and universal frameworks for moral reasoning.
- Ethical Decision-Making in Business: Navigating real-world moral dilemmas.
- Building an Ethical Organisational Culture: From principles to practice.
- The Way Forward: Action planning for sustained spiritual-ethical leadership.
