ELEVATING ENTERPRISES AND CULTIVATING SUCCESSORS

Running a thriving business demands your full attention, often leaving little time to invest in personal growth and leadership development. Yet, as challenges grow more complex, it becomes essential to broaden your strategic and operational mindset to achieve sustainable growth and scalability. The Owners and Directors Executive Management Programme (ODEMP) offers an exceptional, transformative learning experience tailored for owners and directors of established family businesses and organisations. This programme empowers participants to scale their ventures effectively while ensuring long-term sustainability.

ODEMP is an 8-day modular programme that clarifies owners' and directors' critical roles and responsibilities. It is specifically designed to elevate leadership capabilities, helping participants enhance the value and impact of their enterprises. The programme covers foundational and contemporary topics, including strategic planning, business model innovation, succession planning (for family and non-family leaders), technology adoption, scaling operations, sustainability, change management, and responsible leadership.

With ODEMP, you'll gain the insights and tools necessary to lead your business into its next phase of growth and success.

Game-changing and eye-opening in terms of the future of the business and how to fully utilise our leadership in the industry. We are busy on useless days doing operations, and this programme will make you realise the outstanding opportunity we have as family business leaders.

PROGRAMME BENEFITS

If you aspire to achieve a broader global perspective, sharpen your contextual sensitivity, and strengthen your leadership capabilities. In that case, the Owners and Directors Executive Management Programme (ODEMP) is your key to unlocking transformative growth. Designed as a catalyst for organisational and personal development, ODEMP empowers you to drive your company's objectives with greater precision and purpose.

Through this programme, you'll evolve into a visionary leader capable of cultivating an adaptable, sustainability-focused culture, championing organisational expansion, harnessing disruptive innovations, and ensuring lasting success for your enterprise.

ODEMP WILL HELP YOU

Strategically align your business to achieve sustainable competitive advantage and growth

Capitalise on business model innovation and corporate entrepreneurship in an era of rapid change

Develop operational strategies to enhance competitiveness, scalability, and excellence in execution

Leverage technology to drive growth and transform organisational performance

Redefine and contextualise sustainability and the triple bottom line for responsible leadership and management

Build a lasting and valuable network with fellow ODEMP participants and their organisations

PROGRAMME CURRICULUM

ODEMP blends strategic insight with practical application—delivered through case studies, expert faculty sessions, interactive exercises, and cross-industry guest speakers. The curriculum is designed to tackle the real-world challenges of scaling, innovating, and sustaining a successful enterprise. Key focus areas include:

Strategic Thinking and Business Model Innovation

Scaling Operations with Excellence and Consistency

Leveraging Technology for Productivity and Growth

Strengthening the Role of Professional Managers

Innovating Amidst Technological and Cultural Shifts

Managing Complexity and Organisational Change

Redefining Sustainability and Impact

Succession Planning for Leadership Continuity

Talent Development and Retention

Leading Transformative Change

Building Collaborative Networks and Ventures

Financial Strategies for Sustainable Growth

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The Owners and Directors Executive Management Programme (ODEMP) is designed for senior leaders, owners, and decision-makers driving the long-term success and strategic direction of their enterprises. This includes:

Business owners or family members with a significant ownership stake or strategic influence

Directors, heads of business units, or senior professionals responsible for driving strategic transformation

Leaders actively involved in shaping strategy and managing operations of a family-owned or closely held business

Members of multi-generational family businesses or legacy organisations aiming to sustain and expand their impact

Executives overseeing well-established, growing enterprises seeking long-term excellence and sustainability

Exceptional course with lots of applicable learning. A few decades (or centuries) down the road, this programme may be one of the stepping stones for building a stronger foundation for our businesses.
